

DJI GmbH Recruitment 2017

Position 2. :Repair Technician

This position will be based in Niederlauer, Germany or Barendrecht, Nederland

Description:

To troubleshoot, repair, and test fly drones and related modules; maintain inventories of parts and equipment; provide technical assistance to equipment users; perform related work.

Responsibilities:

- Troubleshoots, repairs, calibrates, and test fly various DJI products;
- Uses a variety of test equipment to identify problems and malfunctions; interprets diagrams, schematics, and service manuals;
- Repairs and replaces electronic components and mechanical parts, determines if device malfunctions can be repaired or if new device is necessary;
- Develops preventive maintenance schedules and procedures; performs preventive maintenance on various devices;
- Record problem diagnosis and technical summary;
- Provides technical assistance regarding electronic and mechanical parts malfunctions and advises on corrective procedures.

Requirements:

- Associate degree and up
- Good knowledge of: electronic theory, components, and testing procedures; digital electronics
- Experience: troubleshooting, repairing, calibrating, and maintaining electronic equipment; operating electronic repair equipment and test instruments; fabricating cables and control panels
- Fluent in English, in both speaking and written